

Hal M. Roseman

Cardiology Wellness Center
2400 Patterson Street, Suite 218
Nashville, TN 37203
Voice: (615) 884-4425 Office
Facsimile: (615) 891-7961 Office
Voice: (615) 292-2212 Home
Email: hroseman@bellsouth.net
URL: www.cardiologywellness.net

Resume of Qualifications

Born: 26 March 1953
Union City, Tennessee

Education

1971-1975 B.A. Sociology: Social and Political Theory	University Of Pennsylvania Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
1976-1979 M.D.	University of Tennessee Center for the Health Sciences Memphis, Tennessee
1982-1983 M.P.H. Epidemiology of Chronic Disease: Cardiovascular Diseases, specializing in psycho- social and medical risk factors Dissertation: The effect of geographic migration and blood pressure-the Connecticut experience	Yale University School of Medicine: Laboratory of Epidemiology and Public Health New Haven, Connecticut

Professional Clinical Training

1979-1980 Categorical Internship: Internal Medicine	Baptist Memorial Hospital Affiliate, University of Tennessee
1980-1981 Residency: Internal Medicine	U.S. Public Health Service Hospital Staten Island, New York
1983-1985 Residency: Internal Medicine	Waterbury General Hospital Affiliate, Yale School of Medicine Waterbury, Connecticut
1985-1987 Clinical Fellowship: Cardiology	Affiliated Hospitals of Brown University Program in Medicine Providence, Rhode Island
1987-1988 Clinical and Research Fellowship: Nuclear Cardiology	Massachusetts General Hospital Harvard Medical School Boston, Massachusetts

Professional Working Experience

1981-1982: Indian Health Service (US Public Health Service) Medical Director of an inner-city general medicine clinic; Consultant: developed primary care clinical protocols for Indian Health Service of California	Indian Health Clinic, Los Angeles; Indian Health Service Regional HQ, Sacramento, California
1989-1993 Attending Cardiologist	Private Cardiology Practice Cheyenne, Wyoming
June 1993-October 1993 Attending Cardiologist	Private Cardiology Practice Spartanburg, South Carolina
March 1994-Present Attending Cardiologist	Private Cardiology Practice Nashville, Tennessee

Hal M. Roseman

Professional Examinations/ Licenses	Diplomat: National Board of Medical Examiners: No. 2240866 2 Sept 1980 American Board of Internal Medicine: No. 105700 Internal Medicine, 11 Sept 1985 Cardiovascular Medicine, 8 Nov 1989	Tennessee, No. MD014436 (Active) Inactive Licenses (State, Number): California, 44863 New York, 146580 Colorado, 30725 Rhode Island, No. 7272 Connecticut, 24195 South Carolina, 20-Q294 Massachusetts, 59175 Wyoming, 4398A
Cardiology Specialty Training and Practice Experiences	Echocardiography: Transthoracic, Transesophageal (TEE), and Intravascular Ultrasound Nuclear Cardiology: Blood Pool and Perfusion Scintigraphy Stress Testing, using pharmacological and/or exercise stress, with echo or nuclear imaging	Cardiac Catherization, Interventional Cardiology: Balloon Angioplasty/ Coronary Stent Implantation Permanent and Temporary Pacemaker Implantation and Management CT Angiography
Professional Societies	1988 American College of Nuclear Physicians 1988 Society of Nuclear Medicine 2000 Member, Vascular Biology Work Group 2002 Member, American Diabetes Association 2005 Diplomat, National Lipid Association 2007 Specialist, American Society of Hypertension	Fellowship Standing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1991 American College of Chest Physicians • 1991 American College of Physicians • 1991 American College of Cardiology • 1992 American College of Angiology
Present Professional Interests and Efforts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clinician: started Cardiology Wellness Center, a consultative, non-invasive, clinical cardiology practice, focusing on primary, secondary, and tertiary prevention of cardiovascular diseases; based upon vascular biological principles, evidence-based medicine, and lifestyle modification; concentrating on minimizing the risks of dyslipidemia, hypertension, insulin resistance, diabetes, and advancement of pre-existing cardiovascular disease. • Lecturer: frequent national lecturer (approximately 50 presentations per year) on topics of prevention, treatment, and management of diseases: ischemic cardiovascular and cerebrovascular diseases, heart failure; specific interests in vascular biology, hypertension, lipidology, metabolic syndrome, and diabetes; involving wide range of venues, including academic programs (for continual medical education) and promotional programs (for specific pharmaceutical products or for education regarding specific disease state management). Participant lecturer in several national continuous medical educational initiatives (Medical World Conferences on heart failure, 2002-2003; ExpertExchange on stable ischemic heart disease, 2010-current) and presented at national meeting: New CV Horizons, 2003 (New Orleans, LA). CME lectures include presentations at University of Louisville (2004), University of Tennessee (2004), East Tennessee University (2002), University of Alabama (2005), Lutheran Hospital (Ft. Wayne, IN) (2002), Swedish Medical Center (Tacoma, WA) (2005)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clinical Researcher: long-term involvement in clinical research; investigator site for multiple national and international trials evaluating long-term cardiovascular and mortality effects of various blood pressure, diabetic and lipid treatments; Current Studies: TECOS, EXSCEL, FOURIER, CAMELLIA Trials. • Forensic Cardiologist: offering expert medical-legal assistance and consultation in areas of medical malpractice and workers' compensation related to cardiovascular diseases; involvement in varied legal cases, concerning the full spectrum of cardiovascular diseases; specializing in rendering opinions regarding causality as well as standard of care. • Publications: Roseman H. Progression from Obesity to Type 2 Diabetes: Lipotoxicity, Glucotoxicity, and Implications for Management. J Manag Care Pharm. 2005;11(6):S3-S11 (Reprint: http://www.amcp.org/data/jmcp/august_suppl.pdf) Friedman HS, Rajagopaian S, Barnes JP, Roseman H. Combination Therapy with Ezetimibe/Simvastatin vs. Statin Monotherapy for LDL Cholesterol Reduction and Goal Attainment in a Real-World Clinical Setting. Clin Therapeutics. 2011 Feb; 33(2):212-224